

Glenn R. Roderman

Matrindale- Hubbell AV Peer Review Rated (The highest rating offered)

Practice Areas:

Federal Charges, State Charges, Felonies, Murder, Sexual Battery, Sexual offenses, Robbery, Grand Theft, Burglary, Drug Charges, Misdemeanors, DWI, Petit Theft, Possession of Cannabi, Trespassing, Disorderly Conduct, Juvenile, Community Control Violations, Probation Violations, Elderly Abuse, White Collar Crime, Domestic Violence, Mental Health, Extradition, Bond Hearings, Records Expunged/Sealed

Admitted: 1972, Florida and U.S. District Court, Southern District of Florida; 1975, U.S. Supreme Court

Law School: Stetson University, J.D., 1972

College: The Ohio State University, B.A., 1968

Member: Broward County and American Bar Associations; The Florida Bar (Member, Judicial Nominating Procedures Committee); National District Attorneys Association; National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers; Florida Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers; The Association of Trial Lawyers of America; National Security Advisory Counsel for Costa Rica.

Biography: Phi Alpha Delta. Recipient: Barry Markman Memorial Award. Assistant State Attorney, 1973-1974. Associate Municipal Judge: Town of Davie, 1974-1976; North Lauderdale, 1975-1977. Legal Analyst: ABC channel 10 news

Born: Port Jervis, New York

Glenn R. Roderman, a former Judge, state prosecutor and highly acclaimed ABC Channel 10 News Legal Analyst, is one of South Florida's most respected criminal attorneys. He has a well earned reputation for being relentless in the defense of his clients as is evidenced by his extraordinary success in the courtroom and at the negotiation table. Unlike many attorneys that practice in several areas of the law Mr. Roderman has devoted over 30 years becoming expert in the field of criminal law. His high visibility in the media and within the judicial system has allowed him to form strategic alliances within the criminal justice system that have proven to be invaluable in the defense of his clients. Mr. Roderman personally evaluates every case and is involved throughout the entire legal process.